Community Partnerships Engagement Officer

September 2019

About Sands

Every day in the UK, 15 babies are stillborn or die shortly after birth.

Sands is the leading stillbirth and neonatal death charity and exists to reduce the number of babies dying and to support anyone affected by the death of a baby, before, during or shortly after birth.

Sands provides bereavement support services both nationally through its Freephone helpline, mobile app, online community and resources, as well as locally through a network of around 100 regional support groups based across the UK and run by trained befrienders.

Sands works in partnership with health care professionals, trusts and health boards and offers a range of training programmes and bereavement care resources to ensure that every bereaved parent and family receives the best possible care wherever they are in the UK.

Sands promotes and funds research to better understand the causes of baby deaths and save babies' lives.

Sands raises awareness of baby loss and works with governments, key influencers and other stakeholders to make reducing the number of babies dying a priority nationally and locally.

Over the past 40 years, Sands has grown into a national charity with a powerful vision shared by dedicated volunteers, fundraisers, members, donors, healthcare professionals, partners, staff and bereaved parents and families.

Sands has grown its income by over 40% since 2012 and, as part of the strategic plan to 2020, is focusing on how we can make the biggest difference to the lives of bereaved families and save babies' lives. To find out more, visit www.sands.org.uk our vision at Sands is for a world where fewer babies die and anyone affected by the death of a baby receives the best care and support for as long as they need, wherever they live in the UK.

Join us and help create a world where fewer babies die.

Job Description

Job Title:	Community Partnerships Engagement Officer
Responsible to:	Strategic Partnerships Manager
Location:	Sands Head Office, Victoria Charity Centre, 11 Belgrave Road, London, SW1V 1RB
Contract:	Permanent
Salary:	£23,115 - £28,140 per annum plus £3,417 London Weighting
Hours:	Full Time – 35 Hours per Week (Monday to Friday 9.30am – 5.30pm, with a 1 hour unpaid lunch break)

Purpose of role

This is an exciting role to help Sands further develop and embed our community fundraising initiatives. As well as providing excellent stewardship of current supporters, you will also be integral to the management of a portfolio of regional and national partnerships with companies who have chosen Sands as their Charity of the Year.

The team is looking for someone with a strong commitment to exceptional supporter care, with experience in community and/or corporate fundraising and who can hit the ground running. You will be well organised and have an enthusiastic and proactive approach, being just as happy working independently as you are working with the team.

This role will also work closely with Community Fundraising colleagues on developing and launching an exciting portfolio of community and corporate products and events.

You will draw upon your expertise and creativity by working on creative and concepts with the communications team for corporate engagement.

This is a great opportunity to develop your fundraising skills within a supportive environment and ideally you will have experience in recruiting supporters and managing their journeys, keeping them motivated and connected with the cause. We are looking for someone who is creative, has an eye for detail, and is able to meet income and expenditure targets while managing their time effectively. The role will also provide back-up support to colleagues within the Fundraising and Communications Department to optimise income, awareness and ensure the highest supporter experience.

Working closely with both the Senior Corporate and Trusts Fundraiser, this post will also provide an opportunity to increase corporate fundraising skills and experience, and gain an understanding of individual fundraising.

Key Responsibilities

Corporate fundraising and account management

- Provide excellent account management of Sands' smaller Charity of the Year and other Corporate Partners (as a guideline those giving up to £25,000).
- For your portfolio of partners:
 - Support employee fundraising activities, including events, offering advice and encouragement to staff members through a co-ordinated approach.
 - Write compelling, bespoke communications, working closely with project and finance teams to gather information, and maintain high standards of accuracy at all times.
 - Maintain ongoing communications by telephone and email.
 - Attend meetings and/or give presentations as required.
 - Ensure annual plans of fundraising activities are followed.
 - Ensure appropriate contracts or letters of agreements are in place for your portfolio of corporate partners as required.
 - Provide timely reports on how the money they raised has been spent as required.
- Support the Senior Corporate and Trusts Fundraiser in the management of larger partnerships, for example helping out at events as required.
- Help to ensure that all unsolicited approaches from companies are responded to in a timely manner.

Community fundraising and supporter care

- Act as a champion of community fundraising to inspire, enthuse and motivate supporters to take part in community fundraising initiatives.
- To build relationships with fundraisers via phone, email and in person, ensuring each fundraiser is appropriately stewarded to maximise supporter experience.
- To ensure that all supporters are thanked appropriately and in a timely fashion.
- Work closely with colleagues to ensure Supporter Care work is kept up to date and that the service we offer is the best it can be.
- Attend and contribute to team meetings and fundraising events as required.
- Keep accurate, up-to-date records in the charity CRM and shared drive of plans and communications, in compliance with data protection legislation and best practice.
- Work with the Fundraising and Events Manager to further develop the plans for diversification of community fundraising.

Cross-team working

- Work closely with colleagues in the Fundraising and Communications Department to seize cross-team opportunities to increase income and awareness.
- Liaise with other Sands internal teams as necessary in the preparation of proposals, meetings, reports and communications to companies.
- Provide support to fundraising colleagues when needed to maintain excellent supporter care.

Maximising Fundraising Expertise

- Keep up to date with sector knowledge regarding community fundraising and corporate fundraising techniques, resources and donor trends and share knowledge with colleagues across Sands where relevant.
- Follows best fundraising regulations practice, and comply with relevant legislation.

General

- To undertake other duties as required by the Senior Corporate and Trusts Fundraiser and Fundraising and Events Manager.
- To work flexibly and proactively with other members of the team.
- To maintain confidentiality over personal information relating to staff.
- Abide by all Sands Policies and Procedures.
- Undertake all mandatory training as required.
- Participate in annual appraisal and personal development review.
- The post holder must familiarise themselves with matters relating to Health & Safety Management, as affecting themselves, their department and the organisation as a whole.
- Promote the Sands vision and values at all times.
